Participation on an AmaWaterways FAM sailing is subject to our AmaWaterways Travel Industry Partner Code of Conduct, as follows:

AmaWaterways truly values travel agents as partners and friends in the industry who have contributed to our success. In appreciation of this support, we are always pleased to welcome them on board so that they may experience first-hand AmaWaterways' cruises, hospitality and commitment to exceptional customer service.

As a condition of cruising with us, we greatly appreciate that travel agents follow our Travel Agent Code of Conduct. This policy is not intended to be all inclusive, but should serve as a general guideline to help ensure that all guests, including those from the industry, are able to enjoy their experience while traveling with AmaWaterways.

During the duration of their trip with AmaWaterways, travel agents and their guests may not:

- Disclose the rates they paid to other guests
- Advertise or solicit their professional travel services
- Engage in any inappropriate, illegal or disruptive behavior, including verbal or physical abuse, solicitation, harassment, vandalism, theft, violence, use of false identification, possession of illegal substances, and failure to follow security instructions

AmaWaterways thanks you for your cooperation to this Code. Like you, our goal is to add value to the lives of the people we interact by treating them with dignity and respect. We appreciate your support, and look forward to welcoming you onboard.
